

Don't Forget Our Bargain Subway

Friday's the Day You Know

This Time it will be Men's Pants and Shoes

We are going to make Friday a big day at this store. Get wise, or you'll be sorry.

THE TOGGERY

Under the Arlington.

STANDARD TELEPHONES

EDITORIAL ROOM—
Bell Phone 1000, No. 322
Independent (two rings) 156

BUSINESS OFFICE—
Either phone (one ring) 56

RANDOM REFERENCES

License to Wed—A marriage license has been issued to Estey M. Knapp of Leslie, Idaho, and Etta M. Syphers of Ogden.

Call Allen, phones 22, for carriages for funerals and operas. Private calls a specialty. Also prompt delivery of baggage. 412 25th.

William Niebusch of Brigham was a visitor in the city yesterday.

WANTED—Clean white rags at the Standard.

John Thompson of Devil's Slide transacted business here Wednesday.

Kemmerer's best coal sold only by M. L. Jones Coal Co.

F. M. Quigley of Twin Falls, Idaho, is visiting friends in this city.

Advertisers must have their copy for the Evening Standard the evening before the day on which the advertisement is to appear in order to insure publication.

George P. Walker returned to his home in Wells, Nevada, yesterday after a few days in this city.

ANTHRACITE. You'll have to hurry if you get it. Phone 15. Shurtliff & Company.

Charles C. Collins and wife of Denver arrived yesterday for a brief visit with Ogden friends.

Get your Union Pacific and Oregon Short Line tickets at the office in the Opera House Block. Don't force your self to stand in line at the Depot.

E. D. George and H. S. West were Evanston visitors in this city yesterday.

J. T. Hale was among the residents of Provo in this city yesterday.

T. F. McGovern of Montello, Nevada, was a business caller in the city yesterday.

Charles Bowman was among the South Weber residents in the city yesterday.

Dance Big Success—The annual ball given by the editorial staff of the Aeon, the official publication of the Weber academy, was held at the academy last night. The affair was largely attended by the magazine publishers and their friends.

Will Meet Friday—The basketball teams of the Weber academy and the Academy Alumni association will meet tomorrow night on the academy floor. Following the game there will be a reception for the alumni members and all are requested to be present.

THE RETAIL MERCHANTS' ASSOCIATION.

369 Twenty-fourth Street.
Ind. Phone 1078. Bell Phone 838.

List your accounts with us for collection, and become a member of our association. Expert collection of claims and accounts. Thousands of credit reports in our files at your service, showing the credit standing of all who will apply to you for credit. You cannot afford to be without our protection. Credit ratings furnished free to members.
JOHN ROGHAR, Mgr.

(Continued on Page Seven.)

SANTA CLAUS MESSAGES.

"Santa Claus, Iceland, North Pole. Postmarked Salt Lake, November 23, and with the address written in child's hand, the first of the season's plaintive messages from the credulous child went through the postoffice yesterday.

The pity of the message is that the believing child who addressed the letter

OF THE THANKSGIVING

Goodies you used to have—relieve to have just as good, and BETTER, by making your Thanksgiving like Stuffs with the superior kind.

PEERY'S CRESCENT FLOUR

DEATHS AND FUNERALS

MRS. ELIZABETH JENSEN.

The funeral of Mrs. Elizabeth Jensen will be held at 2 o'clock tomorrow afternoon, with services in the Third ward meeting house at 2 o'clock. The body will lie in state at Lindquist's funeral chapel this evening and until 1 o'clock tomorrow afternoon. Interment to take place in the Ogden City cemetery.

MRS. ANNA SCHERFF.

After an illness of four months, Mrs. Anna M. Scherff, a resident of Wells, Nevada, died at the home of a friend, 2236 Madison avenue, at 9 o'clock yesterday morning. Her death was due to cancer of the liver, and four months ago the patient came to this city to undergo treatment.

The daughter, Mrs. John Fitzmaurice of Butte, Mont., was at the bedside of her mother when death resulted. The deceased was 69 years of age and had resided in Wells for more than thirty years past.

The remains were removed to the undertaking rooms and prepared for burial. Accompanied by the daughter, the body was shipped to Wells at 9 o'clock this morning, interment to take place there.

MRS. GERRITJE NEIBOS.

A message announcing the death of Mrs. Gerritje Neibos, a well-known resident of Salt Lake City, was received by Everett Neibosom last evening. Although Mrs. Neibos had never resided in this city, she was quite well known here.

Mrs. Neibos resided at 2459 Walnut avenue in Salt Lake City, and her death occurred yesterday afternoon, following a long illness from cancer of the stomach. She was 72 years of age and became a member of the Mormon church while still a resident of her native city—Amsterdam, Holland. This was in 1888, and shortly afterward she came to America, residing in Salt Lake City since that time.

The funeral will be held Friday afternoon, with services from the Forest Dale meeting house.

MRS. ANNA GREEN.

Funeral services for Mrs. Anna Green, late wife of Ammon Green, Jr., were held at the West Weber meeting house yesterday, the services at 11 o'clock being in charge of Bishop George Ethrington.

The speakers at the services were George Hunter, Don McKay, Bishop Sheridan Jacobs, Bishop W.H. Hunter, Bishop Robert McFarland and President Jones. The ward choir rendered several musical selections, and Miss Addie Jones rendered the solo, "Some Time We'll Understand."

There was a large number of sorrowing relatives and friends present at the service many following the remains to the Ogden City cemetery.

WILLIAM R. COLE.

Death claimed another pioneer member of the Mormon church yesterday, when William R. Cole, aged 93 years, passed away at the home of his granddaughter, Mrs. William Robinson, at Roy, Weber county. His death was due to general debility and the end came at 6 o'clock yesterday morning, following a long illness.

The deceased was born in Riley, New York, on March 22, 1817. He became a member of the church of the Latter-day Saints at Kirkland, Ohio, in 1834. He was a member of the bodyguard to Prophet Joseph Smith and also belonged to the Nauvoo Legion.

Mr. Cole participated in all the early history of the church, coming to Utah in 1852. At the time of his death he was a member of the high priest quorum of the Weber stake.

The deceased leaves a large posterity, consisting of a wife, four daughters, three sons and more than one hundred and forty grandchildren.

The funeral will be held tomorrow, with services at the Roy meeting house at 10 o'clock. Interment will take place in the Ogden City cemetery.

TWO YOUNG WOMEN ROBBED BY THUG

Salt Lake, Nov. 24.—A lone highwayman, carrying a revolver in each hand, held up Ruby Peterson and Pearl Mortensen, of 15 Blair avenue, near their home shortly after 9 o'clock last night, and robbed them of hand purses containing $4.10. Neither of the young women is over 18 years of age.

A strange little man, apparently more than 20 years of age, with coat collar turned up and hat pulled down over his eyes had been seen in the

CURE OF ECZEMA AND DANDRUFF

By One Box of Cuticura Ointment and One Cake of Cuticura Soap. Head Perfectly Clear.

"I am pleased to inform you that I have been cured by Cuticura Soap and Ointment. Since I was a boy I have suffered with dandruff, not only on the itching but from its disagreeable appearance in a scaly form all over my head. I had to brush it off my clothes all day long. I used every kind of preparation supposed to cure dandruff, also soaps and shampoos, but it seemed to me that, instead of removing with these remedies, the dandruff increased, even my hair began to fall out and the result was that two months ago eczema developed on my scalp.

"I suffered so from this that as a last resource I thought I would try Cuticura Soap and Cuticura Ointment. They had the most gratifying results for I had used only one box of Cuticura Ointment and a single cake of Cuticura Soap when I was cured, the eczema and dandruff were gone and my head perfectly clear.

"I can assure you that so long as I live no other soap than Cuticura will be used by me and all those near me. I will also add that I will use Cuticura Ointment as a dressing for the hair. I feel that you should try it of my cure and if you desire you may use this as a true testimonial which comes from a sufferer of thirty years' standing. I will be happy to tell any of my experience in order to assist those who may be suffering from the same disease. J. A. Acovado, General Commission Merchant, 59 Pearl St., New York, Apr. 21, 1910."

Cuticura Remedies afford the most economical treatment for affections of the skin and scalp. A cake of Cuticura Soap (22¢) and a box of Cuticura Ointment (50¢) are often sufficient. Sold throughout the world. Potter Drug & Chem. Corp., Sole Provs., 135 Columbus Ave., Boston, Mass.

Mail free, 32-page book, an Authority on the Care and Treatment of the Skin, Scalp and Hair.

district during the entire evening, skulking behind trees and in dark recesses. He evoked suspicion, but no one suspected the police.

When the young women were less than 100 feet from their homes, he ran from behind a tree and thrust revolvers into their faces. The girls screamed. When it was apparent that no one had taken notice of the highwayman, he turned back to his car, let and seized the purses carried by the young women. Then, at the point of a gun he ordered them to continue their walk home.

With Patrolman Dan Crowther and H. E. Slater on board the police patrol responded to the holdup call, but the police were unable to locate the highwayman.

W. L. BUSWELL.

One of Ogden's oldest jewelers has taken up his work with the Crescent Jewelry Co., and would be pleased to meet any of his old customers at 2463 Wash. Ave.

FINAL CHAPTER IN HILTON CASE

Salt Lake, Nov. 24.—After years of battle in the courts, the famous Hilton cases have finally been ended. The last legal chapter to those cases was written when Judge C. W. Morse of the Third District court yesterday signed adverse decrees in nine cases, in which Mrs. Anna M. Scherff claimed to property owned by Dr. John R. Park at the time of his death.

Few cases in the history of the Utah courts have attracted such widespread attention as did the Hilton cases, both during the hearings in the district court, and later in the supreme court of the state, where two differing opinions have been written in regard to the peculiar phases presented. In the final disposition, Mrs. Hilton loses in her fight for a portion of the real estate of which Dr. Park was possessed at the time of his death. She had brought suit through the fact that 20 years ago she was married to Dr. Park for eternity, according to the Mormon faith, when it was thought she was on her deathbed. Later she married Mr. Hilton.

The actions settled by the decisions of Judge Morse yesterday were all instituted by Mrs. Hilton against Leo W. Thatcher, Mac C. Beamer, Evarard Bieres, Adolph Anderson, Fred C. Stauffer, Nellie M. Blair, Salt Lake City, and Joseph Geoghegan. A separate action was filed in each case.

At the outset, an agreement was made between the contesting parties that the Thatcher and Geoghegan actions should be fought out, as all was based upon the same claim, the death of or one-third interest of the wife to her husband's property. Mrs. Hilton had married Dr. John R. Park when it was thought she was on her deathbed. The woman recovered, however, and later married Mr. Hilton, whom she had a number of children, but never lived with Dr. Park.

The Dover interest. Dr. Park was president of the state university and prominent in the state, and during his life accumulated considerable of a fortune, which was represented chiefly in real estate. After the death of Dr. Park, Mrs. Hilton set up a claim to an interest in the property which was owned by Dr. Park at the time of his death. But before this claim was made, the property had been sold in whole, or in part, to the several owners who were named in the suit.

In the first hearing before the supreme court, it was claimed that Mrs. Hilton, having been bound in celestial marriage, was the same as a common law wife, and entitled to an interest in the property. This was in reversing the opinion of Judge C. W. Morse. Then Judge Morse decided the other seven cases—as the Thatcher and Geoghegan cases had been first tried—on the basis laid down by the supreme court.

Claims Not Allowed. Another appeal was taken to the supreme court, however, and the case presented in a new light. The result was that while the supreme court did not destroy the former ruling that a celestial marriage is as binding as a common law marriage, but upheld that opinion, the lower court was again reversed. The supreme court held that though Dr. Park's wife, Mrs. Hilton, had knowingly allowed him to sell his property, had never raised a claim to her share during his life time, and not until many years after his death. For this reason, the higher court held she was not entitled to any part of the estate. Thus, while the celestial marriage phase was not disturbed, the court erased the claims of Mrs. Hilton.

It was in filing decrees in conformity to the supreme court's last ruling that Judge Morse yesterday brought the famous cases to a close and wrote this to one of the most interesting and diversified legal tangles in the history of the state.

COMMITTS SUICIDE WHILE DELIRIOUS

Brigham City, Nov. 24.—While in a fit of delirium, O. W. Jensen, a truck gardener living near this place, fired a bullet from a 22-calibre rifle into his head today and instantly killed himself. The tragedy occurred at the man's home, in the presence of his wife and two children, who were powerless to prevent him taking his own life.

Jensen, it is said, had been addicted to the use of liquor, and it finally affected his mind. Yesterday morning he was seized with an fit of delirium and ran away from his home. Taking refuge in a chicken coop on the ranch of N. J. Valentine, Jensen lay in the coop and raved like a madman until efforts were made to return him to his home.

Breaking away from those who tried to quiet him, the frenzied man ran for a distance of three miles out of town before he was finally captured and returned to his home.

Later, going to the barn, Jensen found his 10-year-old son there with a small rifle. The father first tried to persuade his son to shoot him, and failing, wrested the weapon from the boy.

When the child ran to summon his mother and brother, the father placed the muzzle of the weapon against his forehead and pulled the trigger. The bullet penetrated the brain and Jensen fell dead in the presence of his family.

Jensen was about 50 years of age and came here from Kansas about a year ago. He was formerly a locomotive engineer. Funeral arrangements have not been made.

UTAH ENGINEERS PLAN A JUNKET

The following notice has been sent out by the Utah Society of Engineers from its headquarters in Salt Lake:

The entertainment committee of the Utah Society of Engineers has made arrangements for an excursion or inspection trip, to be conducted on Saturday, November 26, 1910, over the lines of the Interurban railroads between Salt Lake City and Brigham City, Utah.

Leaving the Lagoon route station in a special car attached to the 9 a. m. "Ogden Flyer," the trip to Ogden will be made without stop. Connections for Brigham City will be made at once, and the party will partake of a chicken dinner at the hotel in Brigham City about 12 noon. On the return trip stops will be made to inspect the power plant at Willard, Ogden canyon and Lagoon, to view the concrete-lined Weber-Davis canal, and to inspect bridges, transformer stations and other engineering features of interest.

Expenses will be as follows: Transportation, $1.50; dinner, 50 cents. The party should reach Salt Lake City about 6 p. m.

Members of the society and their friends are urged to attend. It will be necessary to make reservations before Friday afternoon, so all persons who expect to take the trip are asked to send their names to O. A. Honnold, care of the Utah Light & Railway company, Salt Lake City.

SOUTHERN PACIFIC STOCK.

A few shares of treasury stock of Southern Pacific Mining company, not subscribed for by the stockholders, whose time was up on Monday, Nov. 21st, is now offered to the public at 50 per share—(installment plan)—one cent down and one cent per month. We must push work even if we have to sacrifice a little stock. First come first served. Apply at F. B. Devoto's office or T. S. Peeney, Falstaff Cafe.

J. W. BURNHAM, Sec.

UNHOLZ OF OGDEN IS COMING BACK

(By T. S. Andrews, well-known fight expert.)

Sydney, New South Wales, Oct. 12.—Rudie Unholz, the Boer lightweight, who made quite a hit in the United States two years ago, when he fought Battling Nelson a draw at Los Angeles, is still in Australia, but intends returning to the states after Christmas. Rudie's wife is at Davenport, Ia., and he expects to join her soon after the New Year, and settle down and become a real citizen of the states. He has been successful here, except in his last fight with Johnny Summers, the English lightweight, whom he lost to in nine rounds.

It was unfortunate that Unholz went into the bout unfit, for he had just escaped death by asphyxiation five weeks previously, when his brother George and himself were overcome by gas in the boarding-house where they were stopping. It took the doctors over five hours to bring Rudie back to life, and at one time they practically gave up all hope. It left the Boer in poor shape, and he should not have gone into the fight with Summers.

Boer May Fight Thompson. Now that the American boys are here Rudie hopes to get on at the Stadium with either Ray Bronson or Cyclone Thompson and after the contest he will leave for home. At present Rudie is training at Katoomba a resort in the mountains, about 60 miles from here and 5,000 feet above the sea level. It is a beautiful spot, and was where Tommy Burns did much of his training.

It seemed like home for some of the boys when they landed here, for the first person to greet them was Unholz. Rudie was perched on a big box at the end of the wharf and yelling his lungs out trying to make the Americans take notice. Finally they caught sight of Rudie and the exchange of greetings was mutual. "Chee, but it feels good to see the Yankees," said Rudie when the boys were finally allowed to go ashore. "You will find the Australians the finest sports in the world," continued Rudie, "and you will be sorry when you are obliged to leave for home." From the way the boys have been treated so far Rudie was expressing it mildly.

Summers Big Drawing Card. Cyclone Thompson and Ray Bronson were somewhat disappointed when they learned that Johnny Summers was returning to his home in London without giving either one a chance to meet him. A contest between Summers and either Thompson or Bronson would have been the biggest kind of a card here, for Johnny had gained a very close decision over Arthur Dunc, a very popular local lightweight, and it would have meant a lot of money to the contestants, but the English lad had arranged to sail on October 6, and nothing could be done to get him to delay his trip home another month.

H. D. McIntosh, who is in London, cabled Mr. Covell here to try and match Summers, but to no avail. "I have been gone ten months from my wife and children," said Johnny, "and I feel that it would not be right to remain long and, besides, I could not do myself justice in a bout, as I have been worrying about getting home the past three months. I know Thompson or Bronson and myself would draw a big gate, but I can only promise to return in February or meet them in England when they go home. I wish the Americans every success, for they are all good boys, as I know by reputation, and I have a warm spot in my heart for all of them, due to the splendid treatment they gave me in New York and Boston, where I fought several battles."

ANNOUNCEMENT.

Mr. J. A. Stimson of Stimson's Cafe wishes to announce to the public, while waiting for the Peery building to be completed on the corner of Hudson avenue and Twenty-fifth street, he will have an up-to-date cafe about Saturday, Nov. 25th, at No. 2160 Grant Ave., just around the corner from Carr's Drug store. Mr. A. G. Fell has just completed this building for Mr. Stimson and it will be hard to find a better appointed little cafe in Ogden. Remember next Saturday—

BARON'S BARGAIN FESTIVAL

Is without doubt the greatest money-saving event the men and boys of Ogden ever saw.

Suits, overcoats, hats, underwear, furnishings, shoes, etc. are selling at discounts of 30, 40, 50 and even 60 per cent.

And every article is of dependable quality—guaranteed by us.

The display of new styles and new patterns should be enough to attract you regardless of this extraordinary cut in prices.

BARON'S

2345 Washington
It's a Real Feast of Bargains